Department of State
251 West 57th Street
New York, New York

Dear Foy:

I was notified today that I am being reassigned to the Office of Operations here in the Agency which will relieve me of direct responsibility for the [REDACTED] is a part of this office. I shall continue to participate in activities in a more general way and shall always bear in mind our interest in furnishing you the maximum possible service.

[REDACTED] has been designated as my replacement. He is keenly aware of your needs and I am sure if any changes are made in the service to ID they will certainly be for the better. I shall suggest to [REDACTED] that he visit you in New York if possible. At the same time when you are in Washington, if you have time to arrange to see him for a few minutes, I am sure it would be mutually beneficial.

Sincerely,
